ABOUT THE DIRECTOR:

JOHN GUNN'S involvement with the Malvern Theatre Company spans 21 years of acting, directing, designing and building sets and he is a recent recipient of the Colin Cave Memorial Award which is given to a member for a major contribution to the Company beyond the areas of acting and directing. John's most recent role was in 'Rodgers and Hart's' "Sing For Your Supper".

ABOUT THE CAST:

GLENN HUNT has played in "The Shifting Heart" (Elwood), "On Golden Pond" (Athenaeum Lilydale) and "Death of a Salesman" (Everage Theatre Co). T.V. productions include "Neighbours", "The Great Bookie Robbery" and "Leonski - the Brownout Murders".

JEN BARLOW a stalwart company member over many years was last seen in "See How They Run".

JOHN AVERY has appeared in many plays and musicals - recent shows include "A Man For All Seasons" (Malvern) and "Sailor Beware" (Pumpkin Theatre).

DON HAMMOND a long standing Company member, was last seen in "How the Other Half Loves" and was Stage Manager for "The Heiress".

DENIS SCULLIN apart from Malvern shows has recently appeared as 'Mack Sennett' in Mack and Mabel (Altona) and "Absent Friends" (Pumpkin Theatre).

CAROLYN GUNN has directed and acted in many of our shows since joining Malvern in 1964 - she has been President of the Company since 1980.
