Philadelphia, Here I Come

by BRIAN FRIEL

directed by
DEBORAH PELLING

Malvern Theatre
February 1986

ABOUT THE CAST:

NORAH TOOHEY:

Norah has played in a number of Malvern plays, her last being "Just Between Ourselves". She has also played at Williamstown Little Theatre and Pumpkin Players. Norah is a member of our Play Selection Committee and a regular F.O.H. worker and is delighted to be in this cast, her first Irish play.

GLENN HUNT:

Glenn last appeared at Malvern in "Fools" in September '85 since then he was in "Breath of Spring" for Elwood Theatre Co., and "In Camera" with La Mama Theatre.

Glenn has also worked on T.V. including "Neighbours", "Feeling A Bit Tense" "Prime Time" "Anzacs" "A Thousand Skies" and various T.V. commercials.

DAMIEN RICHARDSON:

Damien has performed in many Eltham Little theatre productions such as "Whose Life is it Anyway", "Play It Again Sam" and "The Fantasticks".

He has also worked at Pumpkin Theatre; won a F.E.I.P. award last year for his performance in Heritage's "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum".

JOHN BROMLEY:

John resumed his acting career after moving from Geelong to Melbourne two years ago.

Whilst in Geelong he did several stage shows with G.P.A.C. including "Dracular Spectacular" and a number of shows with G.S.O.D.A., these included "South Pacific" and "Hello Dolly".

After moving to Melbourne John stage managed for the Peridot Theatre.

ROD McGREGOR:

Rod is making his acting debut with the Malvern Theatre, having also appeared on stage in "The Servant of Two Masters" "Paint Your Wagon", "The Wiz" and more recently in "HMS Pinafore".

Rod has been involved with Malvern for the past four years in the areas of set construction, audio, lighting and printing. He is presently the theatre's properties storeman and mailing list supervisor.

MALCOLM RAMSEY:

Malcolm's last appearance with Malvern was in 1984 in "A Tomb with a View".

Malcolm was actively involved in Dramatic School in 1985 as a First year Drama student in Perth, W.A.

Malcolm is determined to gain stage experience in the future when he goes to London.

OUR NEXT ATTRACTION

"DEATHTRAP"

By

IRA LEVIN

Directed by: STEPHEN CUMMINS

APRIL 11 - 26 Bookings:Mrs Ward 29.7417

2 Performances on Sat. April 12 - 5 p.m. and 8.15 p.m.

Special Gala Performance on Sat. April 19 at 8.15 p.m.
with pre-show sherries and a Champagne supper after the show.

****

MALVERN THEATRE WORKSHOP:

Weekly Workshops for 1986 will commence from Wednesday 19th. February in the Hall adjacent to the Theatre at 8 p.m.

NEW MEMBERS most welcome:

For further information please contact Hilda on 25.4080.